II. NOTEWORTHY INCIDENTS

A resident of Chatsworth was arrested for assault in the 2400 block of Old Topanga Canyon Road. The suspect assaulted his niece during an argument. (17-07242)

A residential burglary occurred in the 3300 block of Van Allen Place. A window was smashed to gain entry. It was unknown at the time of the report what property was stolen since the rooms in the residence were ransacked. (17-07064)

A "hot prowl" residential burglary (victim was inside residence sleeping during the time of the incident) was reported in the 19700 block of Observation Drive. There were no signs of forced entry. Suspect(s) unknown stole several assorted liquor bottles, car keys and the victim's vehicle, a 2007 Pontiac Solstice. The vehicle was recovered ten hours later in the area of Old Topanga Canyon Road and Mulholland Highway. (17-07337)

A domestic violence incident occurred in the 19400 block of Grand View Drive. The suspect assaulted his girlfriend during an argument and was arrested. (17-07218)

A theft was reported in the 100 block of South Topanga Canyon Blvd. A female White, 50 to 60 years in age, stole watering cans, a statue and flower pots from the location. The suspect fled in a black BMW which was driven by a male suspect. (17-06877)

Sincerely,
