II. NOTEWORTHY INCIDENTS

A vehicle burglary occurred in the 2600 block of Topanga Canyon Road. The driver's side rear passenger window had been pulled down and a pair of shoes, registration card, a smog certificate and a disabled placard were stolen from inside the vehicle.

A mail theft was reported in the 20100 block of Observation Drive. The informant received a motion alert from his camera surveillance system of a vehicle slowly driving by the front of his residence. The informant walked outside and saw a gray Ford Fusion slowly driving in the area. The unknown male driver (suspect) drove up to the informant's neighbor's mailbox, reached out the driver's window and opened the mailbox. When the suspect saw the informant watching him, he fled the location. There were at least fifteen mailboxes with open doors on Grand View Drive and Observation Drive. Detectives have possibly identified the suspect and are preparing to make an arrest in this case.

Two residents of Pacoima were arrested for domestic violence in the area of the "Top of Topanga Overlook" (3400 Topanga Canyon Blvd). The suspects (boyfriend/girlfriend) assaulted each other during an argument.

A domestic violence incident occurred in the 1400 block of Glen Road. The victim was assaulted by her boyfriend during a verbal dispute, and the suspect fled the location.

Sincerely,
